The Transformation Partner

Your office of strategic transformations, governance, risk and compliance, and business excellence. Consulting, technology and training, joined as one partner.

MTWAFIQ connects

The people who set the rules, the organisations that follow them, the consultants who help them, and the kits that make the work repeatable.

Regulators
Official rules by sector and country, each with its official link

Organisations
Put the rules that apply in scope, with owners, evidence and change alerts

Consultants
Verified, and matched by sector, country and problem

Kits
Ready to run, kept current by MTWAFIQ and consultants

MTWAFIQ optimises

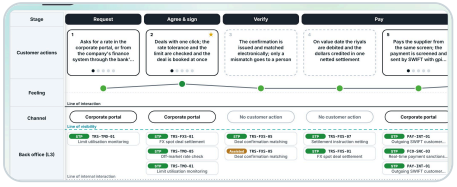

Money and people where they return the most, every must-do kept in.

Budgets
Spend within the limit, on what returns most

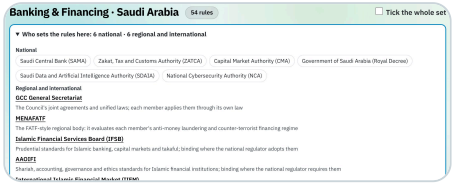

Investments
Return against risk, across the portfolio

Resources
People and capacity where the work is

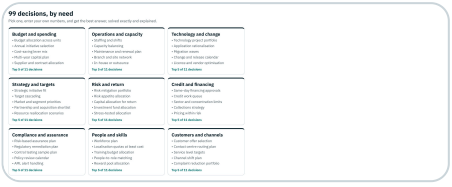

What you can do from day one

Design the customer journey, front to back

Know who sets the rules, and what they ask
